TSINGHAI BANDIT SUPPRESSION PROGRESSES -- Ning-po Jen-pao, 17 Apr 50

Lan-chou, 15 April (Hsin-hua) -- Through the cooperation of the local inhabitants, the People's Liberation forces are successfully annihilating the remaining bandits in Tsinghai Province. During March, more than 60 bandits, including bandit leaders Meng Ch'uan-chan (5) and Ma Wu-chu (6) were captured and some 300 were killed by our forces. In addition, more than 400 bandits, including Bandit Leaders Ma Chung-i (7) and Han Chin-lu (8), surrendered voluntarily to our suppression forces.

DESTROYS KMT REMNANTS IN SOUTHWEST -- Ning-po Jen-pao, 17 Apr 50

Chungking, 16 April -- The Southwest Military District Headquarters of the People's Liberation Army has reported that the majority of the KMT remnants in the border areas of Sikang and Szechwan have been annihilated. During mid-March 1950, units of this headquarters attacked Hsi-ch'ang, headquarters of the remnants of Hu Tsung-nan (9), and wiped out or captured more than 10,250 former CNA troops. Former CNA units annihilated during this campaign included: the headquarters of Hu-Tsung-nan and Ho Kuo-kuang (10), Hsi-ch'ang Garrison Headquarters, Ho's Defense Group, KMT Ministry of National Defense's First Independent Garrison Division, Twenty-seventh Army, One Hundred Twenty-fourth Army, Chang T'ung-sen's (11) force of the Second Army, Sixty-ninth Army, 335th Division of the Third Army, 310th Division of the One Hundred Twenty-seventh Army, and Chin-sha Garrison Headquarters. Former KMT commanders who were captured included Hu Ch'ang-ch'ing (12), Commanding General of the Sixty-seventh Army, and Lo Li (13) his chief of staff; Yang Jen-an (14), Commanding General of the Eleventh Army; Li Kuang-tsu (15), Commander of 51st Division; Wang Po-huai (16), commander of 335 Division. In addition, large amounts of enemy equipment were also captured.

SAYS KWANGSI BANDITS WIPED OUT -- Canton Nan-fang Jih-pao, 17 Apr 50

Wu-chou -- From the beginning of March 1950, the bandits in Kuei-p'ing, P'ing-nan, and Ts'ang-wu hsiens in Kwangsi increased their subversive activities, such as raiding and destroying public warehouses, assassinating our activities personnel, inciting the people to oppose the grain levy, etc., to disrupt peace and order in these areas. These bandits were, moreover, assisted by the unscrupulous reactionary landlords in their activities.

To eliminate these menaces the local authorities sought the aid of the Communist military forces, and a bandit-suppression campaign was subsequently launched. During the latter part of March, some 420 bandits were annihilated in addition to some 480 who were captured and 130 who surrendered voluntarily to our suppression force. A large amount of equipment was also captured.
